Observations

Silver trading range for the day is 88305-92345.

Silver dropped following US President Trump's threat to impose tariffs and sanctions on Colombia.

Market sentiment was also weighed down by data showing that manufacturing activity in China, unexpectedly contracted. Ongoing supply concerns, particularly in London vaults, coupled with strong industrial demand continue to support prices.

Fed is widely expected to hold interest rates steady, though it faces increasing pressure from Trump to cut borrowing costs immediately.

Gold dipped after President Donald Trump held off from imposing threatened tariffs on Colombia as the two countries reached a deal on the return of deported migrants. However markets remained confident that the Fed is due to lower its interest rate this year. The central bank is expected to hold rates unchanged this week following to pause from the 100 bps in cuts since the start of the cycle in September, but investors are hopeful that Chairman Powell will refrain from delivering an overly hawkish guidance after the latest CPI data indicated some softening in underlying inflation.

Asia Gold – Elevated prices deter buyers in key hubs - Elevated prices dampened demand for physical gold in most Asian hubs, while Indian dealers offered the biggest discounts in more than six months. Indian dealers offered a discount of up to $38 an ounce over official domestic prices, up from the last week's discount of $30 an ounce. Jewellers were not making purchases as some are speculating that the government might change the import duty structure in the next week's annual budget. In top consumer China, dealers offered discounts of $10 and charged a premium of $10 per ounce above international rates, versus premiums of $3-$13 last week. In Hong Kong, gold was sold at par with a $2 premium. In Japan, bullion was sold from a discount of $1 to a premium of $1.

China's 2024 gold consumption slumps 9.58% y/y as high prices cut demand - China's gold consumption in 2024 slumped 9.58% on the year to 985.31 metric tons, data from the China Gold Association showed, as high gold prices curtailed jewellery demand. Gold jewellery buying, which accounts for half of the total, plunged 24.7% to 532.02 tons, according to the data. Meanwhile, purchases of gold bars and coins, which typically reflect safe-haven demand, jumped 24.5% over the year to 373.13 tons, the association said. In 2024, China's gold output from domestically produced raw materials climbed by 0.56% to 377.24 tons, association data showed. Output of gold from imported raw materials increased 8.83% for the year to 156.86 tons, bringing China's total gold output last year to 534.11 tons, an annual increase of 2.85%.

China's central bank adds more gold to its reserves in December - China's central bank added gold to its reserves in December for a second straight month, following a resumption in November after a six-month hiatus, official data by the People's Bank of China (PBOC) showed. China's gold reserves stood at 73.29 million fine troy ounces at the end of December from 72.96 million troy ounces a month earlier. The value of China's gold reserves declined to $191.34 billion at the end of last month from $193.43 billion at the end of November. The PBOC paused its 18-month gold buying spree in May 2024, which had taken a toll on Chinese investor demand. The bank's decision to resume purchases could boost Chinese investor demand.

India has slashed its November gold import estimates by an unprecedented $5 billion - India has slashed its November gold import estimates by an unprecedented $5 billion, the largest revision for any commodity in history, after errors in preliminary calculations inflated the figure to a record, government data showed. The country's gold imports in November were $9.84 billion, significantly lower than a preliminary estimate of $14.8 billion published last month, according to data compiled by the Directorate General of Commercial Intelligence and Statistics (DGCIIS). The downward revision in gold imports by $5 billion would reduce the trade deficit by a similar amount, said a government official. Gold delivered better returns than stocks for Indian investors in 2024, driving increased demand for coins and bars, according to World Gold Council.
