 - Asian stocks struggled for solid footing amid a lack of local drivers after the S&P 500 crept to another record ahead of key earnings. Fed speakers suggesting only one or two rate cuts this year dominated a session that saw equities gain and Treasuries edged higher. Shares in Japan fell as the country reported a trade deficit. Stock investors are bracing for a spike in volatility amid geopolitical worries.
- ▶ Commodities:
 - A rally across metals cooled amid fears they had run ahead of fundamentals. Gold, silver and copper consolidated near recent highs, while oil slipped after an industry report showed a jump in stockpiles.
