Technical Snapshot

BUY GOLD AUG @ 142800 SL 13800 TGT 141500-140500. MCX

Observations

Gold trading range for the day is 139990-143350.

Gold dropped as escalating tensions in the Middle East kept inflation and interest rate concerns at the forefront of investors' minds.

US producer prices unexpectedly declined in June for the first time in nearly a year.

ANZ cuts year-end gold price forecast to $4,600/oz and 12-month forecast to $5,400/oz

ANZ says if expectations for Fed tightening stay firm, gold is likely to remain under pressure and fall towards $3,500/oz

Technical Snapshot

SELL SILVER SEP @ 222500 SL 225500 TGT 218500-216500. MCX

Observations

Silver trading range for the day is 215235-226275.

Silver prices edged lower as investors shifted towards riskier assets following softer US inflation data.

US CPI report showed headline inflation fell 0.4% in June, marking its first monthly decline since the pandemic.

Fed's Waller warned that the central bank may need to raise rates "in the near term" if inflation remains above the 2% target.

ANZ says silver remains closely tied to gold, but its fundamentals are set to gradually turn more supportive over the medium to long term

Gold dropped as escalating tensions in the Middle East kept inflation and interest rate concerns at the forefront of investors' minds. US producer prices unexpectedly declined in June for the first time in nearly a year, weighed down by lower energy costs, while core PPI increased by a softer-than-expected 0.2%. The data followed Tuesday's weaker consumer inflation report, leading investors to reduce expectations for additional Federal Reserve tightening. However, markets still see roughly a 49% chance of a September rate hike as higher oil prices, driven by the ongoing US strikes on Iran, the reimposition of a naval blockade on Iranian ports, and the closure of the Strait of Hormuz by Tehran, continue to pose upside risks to inflation. Fed Chair Kevin Warsh also reaffirmed that the central bank has "no tolerance" for persistently elevated inflation.

Gold discounts in India deepen as volatility hurts demand; purchases in China steady - Gold traded at a wide discount in India as price volatility weighed, while demand in China remained steady with the country's central bank reporting its largest monthly increase in gold reserves in more than 2-1/2 years in June. Dealers offered gold at discounts of up to $19 an ounce over official domestic prices this week, compared with premiums of up to $5 an ounce and discounts of up to $7 an ounce a week earlier. In China, bullion traded at discounts of $1 to premiums of $5 an ounce to the global benchmark spot price, compared to last week, when it traded at par to discounts of $2. In Hong Kong, gold traded between a $1 discount and a $1.70 premium. In Singapore, gold was sold between a $1 discount and a $2 premium, while in Japan, it was sold at a discount of $0.40.

Swiss gold exports drop 9% in May as deliveries to India fall - Swiss gold exports fell 9% in May from the previous month as lower shipments to India and Hong Kong offset higher deliveries to Britain and China, Swiss customs data showed. Supplies to India, a key bullion consumer, slumped to 955 kg in May, the lowest monthly amount in six years, down from 6.5 metric tons in April as India raised import tariffs for precious metals to support the rupee. "Gold jewellery demand remained subdued through May and early June, a seasonally soft period," the World Gold Council said in its India-focused research. "Industry feedback also suggests that bar and coin demand remained broadly stagnant." Deliveries to the UK from Switzerland, the world's biggest bullion refining and transit hub, rose to 39.4 metric tons last month from 35.5 tons in April. Britain is home to the world's largest over-the-counter gold trading hub.

China's net gold imports via Hong Kong fell about 38% month-on-month in May, with Hong Kong Census and Statistics Department data showing that they reached 53.674 metric tons, down from 86.715 tons in April. The Hong Kong data may not provide a complete picture of Chinese purchases, because gold is also imported via Shanghai and Beijing. China's total gold imports via Hong Kong stood at 65.562 tons in May, down around 34% from April's 99.327 tons. China's central bank increased its gold reserves for a 19th consecutive month in May, data from the People's Bank of China showed earlier this month. Gold reserves rose to 74.96 million fine troy ounces by the end of May versus the previous month's 74.64 million ounces. Meanwhile, the Hong Kong Futures Exchange said late last month that it would introduce a market-wide trading fee discount and incentive programmes for gold futures in a bid to boost liquidity and revitalise the contract.

India raises gold and silver tariffs to 15% to curb imports, support rupee - India has raised import tariffs on gold and silver to 15% from 6%, government orders said, as part of efforts to curb overseas purchases of the metals and ease pressure on the country's foreign exchange reserves. The higher duties could dampen demand in the world's second-largest consumer of precious metals, although they may help narrow India's trade deficit and support the rupee, one of Asia's worst-performing currencies. However, industry officials warned higher import taxes could revive smuggling, which had eased after India cut tariffs in mid-2024. The government has imposed a 10% basic customs duty and a 5% Agriculture Infrastructure and Development Cess (AIDC) on gold and silver imports, taking the effective import tax to 15% from 6%. Inflows into India's gold exchange-traded funds (ETFs) surged 186% year-on-year in the March quarter to a record 20 metric tons, the World Gold Council said last month.
