Market Review

US: The S&P 500 and Nasdag closed higher on Wednesday after data showing the U.S. services industry growth slowed further in March, but the advance was limited after Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell indicated a cut in interest was still not in sight.

Asia: Asian markets rebounded following a sell-off in the previous session, as investors digest comments from US Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell. Nikkei index up 1.2%, Kospi gained 1% and Straits Times index rose 0.7%.

India: The Indian market ended on a flat note in the highly volatile session on April 3. At close, the Sensex was down 27.09 points, or 0.04%, at 73,876.82, and the Nifty was down 18.6 points, or 0.08%, at 22,434.70. Amid weak global cues, the market opened on a negative note but erased all the losses in the initial hours and inched closer to record highs supported by IT, metal, oil & gas, power names. However, selling at final hour erased the intraday gains. Market is expected to open gap up and likely to witness positive move during the day.

Global Economy: U.S. services industry growth slowed further in March, while a measure of prices paid by businesses for inputs dropped to a four-year low, which bodes well for the inflation outlook. The Institute for Supply Management (ISM) said on Wednesday that its non-manufacturing PMI fell to 51.4 last month from 52.6 in February. It was the second straight monthly decline in the index since rebounding in January.

Hong Kong's retail sales rose for the 15th straight month in February boosted by continuing growth in tourism and consumption. Sales in February rose 1.9% from a year earlier to HK$33.8 billion ($4.32 billion), the Hong Kong government said. That compared with 0.9% growth in January, 7.8% rise in December and 15.9% jump in November.

Commodities: Gold prices hit record highs in early Asian trade on Thursday, as the yellow metal benefited from weakness in the dollar amid uncertainty over U.S. interest rate cuts, while increased safe haven demand also aided prices.

Oil prices rose to five-month highs in Asian trade on Thursday, extending a rash of recent gains as the prospect of worsening geopolitical conditions in the Middle East presented more potential supply disruptions.

Currency: The dollar was pinned beneath recent peaks on Thursday with traders taking remarks from Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell as reassuring on the likelihood of interest rate cuts this year while waiting for the latest U.S. labour market readout.

The research report has been prepared for the general use of the clients of NBSPL and must not be copied, either in whole or in part, or distributed or redistributed to any other person in any form. If you are not the intended recipient you must not use or disclose the information in the research report in any way. Though disseminated to all the customers simultaneously, not all customers may receive the research report at the same time. NBSPL will not treat recipients as customers by virtue of their receiving the research report. The research report is not directed or intended for distribution to or use by any person or entity resident in a state, country or any jurisdiction, where such distribution, publication, availability or use would be contrary to law, regulation or which would subject NBSPL & its group companies to registration or licensing requirements within such jurisdictions.

The report is based on the information obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but we do not make any representation or warranty that it is accurate, complete or up-to-date and it should not be relied upon as such. We accept no obligation to correct or update the information or opinions in it. NBSPL or any of its affiliates or employees shall not be in any way responsible for any loss or damage that may arise to any person from any inadvertent error in the information contained in the research report. NBSPL or any of its affiliates or employees do not provide, at any time, any express or implied warranty of any kind, regarding any matter pertaining to this report, including without limitation the implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. The recipients of the research report should rely on their own investigations.

This information is subject to change without any prior notice. NBSPL reserves its absolute discretion and right to make or refrain from making modifications and alterations to this statement from time to time. Nevertheless, NBSPL is committed to providing independent and transparent recommendations to its clients, and would be happy to provide information in response to specific client queries.

Before making an investment decision on the basis of research report, the reader needs to consider, with or without the assistance of an adviser, whether the advice is appropriate in light of their particular investment needs, objectives and financial circumstances. There are risks involved in securities trading. The price of securities can and does fluctuate, and an individual security may even become valueless. International investors are reminded of the additional risks inherent in international investments, such as currency fluctuations and international stock market or economic conditions, which may adversely affect the value of the investment. Opinions expressed are subject to change without any notice. Neither the company nor the director or the employees of NBSPL accept any liability whatsoever for any direct, indirect, consequential or other loss arising from any use of the research report and/or further communication in relation to the research report. Here it may be noted that neither NBSPL, nor its directors, employees, agents or representatives shall be liable for any damages whether direct or indirect, incidental, special or consequential including lost revenue or lost profit that may arise from or in connection with the use of the information contained in the research report.
