Technical Snapshot

SELL SILVER MAR @ 91500 SL 92200 TGT 90700-90100. MCX

Observations

Silver trading range for the day is 89335-93175.

Silver dropped extending pullback amid uncertainty over the magnitude of Fed rate cuts next year.

US Jobless Claims increased by 242K against expectations of a slight decline to 220K from the previous week's 225K.

The ECB cut rates by 0.25% to 3% against the will of some doves, who wanted more aggressive cuts.

US Producer prices were mixed, with the headline PPI accelerating at a 0.4% pace, twice as much as the 0.2% expected, from 0.3% in October.

Gold dropped as dollar headed for its best weekly performance in a month as investors priced in the possibility of the Federal Reserve cutting rates more slowly next year. U.S. data showed the job market is gradually cooling in line with expectations, while producer price inflation helped reinforce the market's current scenario of a Fed cut on Dec. 18, but a slower pace of reductions in 2025. San Francisco Fed President Mary Daly, for example, said this month that she was comfortable cutting rates in December, but advocated "a more thoughtful and cautious approach" on further reductions.

Asia Gold: India discounts at over 2 – month highs; China stimulus plan fails to impress - Gold discounts in India widened to their highest level in over two months as a rebound in domestic prices during the wedding season curtailed demand, while China's stimulus measures did little to revive consumer confidence in the key market. Indian dealers offered a discount of up to $9 an ounce over official domestic prices, up from last week's discount of up to $2. Dealers in China were offering discounts between $19.4-$25 per ounce, compared with last week's $11-$15 discount. Premium in Singapore was at $1.50, a trader said, while in Hong Kong, gold was sold at $1.50-$2.00 premiums. In Japan, a trader quoted a premium of $3.0 per ounce to discounts up to $4.5.

China's central bank resumes gold purchases after six – month hiatus in Nov - China's central bank resumed buying gold for its reserves in November after a six-month pause, official data by the People's Bank of China (PBOC) showed. Resumption of its purchases may support Chinese investor demand which was muted since the PBOC paused its 18-month buying streak in May. China's gold holdings rose to 72.96 million fine troy ounces at the end of November, up from 72.80 million troy ounces a month earlier. The value of China's gold reserves fell to $193.43 billion at the end of last month from $199.06 billion at the end of October.

Central bank gold buying skyrockets in October, led by India, Turkey and Poland - Central banks reported 60 tons of net gold purchases in October, the highest amount recorded in 2024, according to the latest figures from the World Gold Council (WGC). The October tally doubled that of the 12-month average with the RBI leading both y-t-d purchases and those reported during the month. India added 27t in October, bringing its total gold purchases to 77t y-t-d. India's y-t-d net buying represents a five-fold increase on its 2023 activity. Emerging market central banks continued to dominate the market with Turkey and Poland adding 72t and 69t y-t-d to their gold reserves, respectively. These three central banks alone account for 60% of total global net purchases reported this year. Several other central banks reported net increases of one ton or more to their gold reserves in October.

Gold ETF demand turns positive for year – to – date, says WGC - Global physically-backed gold exchange-traded funds (ETFs) saw inflows for the sixth straight month in October, with year-to-date flows turning positive for the first time this year, the World Gold Council (WGC) said. Demand was supported by North American and Asian flows, the WGC added. Gold-backed ETFs attracted $4.3 billion of inflows in October to lift collective holdings to 3,244 tons, the WGC said. After three years of outflows, driven by high interest rates, the past six months have seen a marked reversal. Continued inflows and record gold prices lifted global assets under management to a month-end record of $286 billion in October, the WGC said in a note. The WGC added that worldwide gold trading volumes edged higher, supported by over-the-counter (OTC) and ETF activities.
