Guidance demands tight delivery

- L&T Technology's (LTTS) 2QFY26 revenue grew 1.3% QoQ in CC terms vs. our estimate of 1.0% QoQ growth. Sustainability grew 3.0% QoQ, while Mobility declined 1.4% QoQ.
- EBIT margin stood at 13.4%, rising 10bp QoQ, in-line with our estimate of 13.4%. PAT rose 4.1% QoQ to INR3.2b, in line with our estimate of INR3.2b.
- For 1HFY26, revenue/EBIT/PAT grew 16.1%/1.1%/1.8% YoY. We expect revenue/EBIT/PAT to grow 10.9%/8.1%/14.4% YoY in 2HFY26. We reiterate our Neutral rating on the stock with a revised TP of INR4,400 (based on Jun' 27E EPS).

Our view: Furloughs to impact 3Q growth

- Mobility to stabilize in 4Q; sustainability segment leads growth: LTTS reported a stable 2QFY26, largely driven by growth in the sustainability segment (up 3.1% QoQ). Mobility still remains weak, dragged by subdued auto demand. Trucks and off-highway sub-segments provided some relief. Management expects Auto to witness an improvement from 4Q onwards. Hi-tech remains a mixed bag. While the Intelliswift integration is supporting growth, ramp-ups in med-tech in the US have experienced some deferrals.
- LTTS reported a record-high TCV of USD300m, driven by multiple deal wins, including a USD100m large deal in the sustainability segment. The company reiterated its double-digit growth guidance for FY26 and expects both the revenue and margin momentum to improve in 2H over 1H. We believe furloughs in 3Q may partially temper growth expectations. That said, sustainability is likely to anchor performance, provided Mobility stabilizes in 4Q. We estimate 8.9% YoY CC growth for FY26.
- Margin holds up; positive outlook despite a likely wage hike impact: Margins were stable sequentially at 13.4% (up 10bp QoQ), as currency gains were offset by softness in the auto segment. Management expects margins to expand going forward, aided by a favorable segment mix, growth leverage, and SG&A optimization. With client-support investments now concluded, margin recovery should begin from 3Q. Wage hikes are expected either in 3Q or 4Q. We build a gradual improvement in margins and expect a 30bp QoQ increase to 13.7% in 3QFY26.

Valuation and revisions to our estimates

- We expect USD revenue CAGR of 10% over FY25-28E, with an EBIT margin improving to 15.5% by FY28E. LTTS remains a diversified ER&D play, further strengthened by Intelliswift's platform engineering capabilities. Its strong performance in the sustainability vertical continues to be hindered by subdued mobility performance. Our estimates remain unchanged. We reiterate our Neutral rating on the stock with a revised TP of INR4,400 (based on 27x Jun'27E EPS).

Valuation and view

- LTTS's strength lies in its engineering heritage from its parent company, as well as a well-diversified portfolio. The addition of Intelliswift enhances its capabilities in platform engineering, further strengthening its positioning in the ER&D space. That said, near-term growth visibility remains modest and margin expansion, while directionally intact, appears back-ended and execution-dependent.
- We expect a USD revenue CAGR of 10% over FY25-28E, with EBIT margin expanding to 15.5% by FY28E. We reiterate our Neutral rating on the stock with a revised TP of INR4,400 (based on 27x Jun'27E EPS).

- Customers are gradually adapting to the “new normal,” with decision-making showing early signs of improvement in recent months.
- The adoption of AI in manufacturing continues to pick up steadily.
- Multiple consolidation deals are underway, especially among Western and Eastern European firms, with more expected in the coming quarters.

- The “Go deeper to scale” and multi-segment strategy is driving deeper client engagements.
- LTTS reaffirmed its double-digit revenue growth guidance for FY26 and remains confident of achieving its medium-term USD2b target.
- Growth continues across the US and Europe, with a broad-based recovery expected across all verticals from 4QFY26 onwards.
- The company continues to focus on utilization optimization and productivity gains through automation and AI-led delivery models.
- Revenue contribution from top clients is expected to increase, supported by strong client mining and account expansion initiatives.
- LTTS filed 216 patents in AI and GenAI.
- Licensing revenue contributed 1% of trailing 12-month revenue, with a target to reach 5% over the medium term.
- Key platforms include QGuard.ai, FusionWorld.ai, PLxAI, AiNexus, GENIQ, and TrackEiT, all of which continue to see strong client engagement and early monetization.

Vertical-specific demand commentary

- Mobility: Trucks and off-highway segments performed well; Aerospace and Railways remained resilient. The Auto vertical continues to face headwinds as clients reassess spending priorities. However, local manufacturing programs remain resilient. Around 85% of the business in this segment comes from Auto OEMs. Vendor consolidation opportunities are emerging in Europe and the US. Truck and Off-highway clients are investing in new rollouts, including a USD20m win in the quarter. The segment is expected to be muted in 3Q due to cyclical furloughs but should recover in 4Q.
- Sustainability: Sustained demand and ramp-up of large deal closures supported growth. LTTS signed a USD100m+ multi-year deal in the Sustainability vertical with a US-based industrial equipment manufacturer in the semiconductor value chain. The deal spans over five years, is largely offshore, and aligns with segment margins. The vertical now has an account with an annual run rate exceeding USD50m in the plant engineering sub-segment. Growth drivers include AI-led industrial solutions and greenfield digitization programs for utilities.
- Hi-Tech: Software and platform segments continue to gain traction through agentic AI offerings, with encouraging client response and deal wins. Media & Tech vertical is evolving rapidly with demand for AI and immersive technologies. MedTech is seeing strong growth in Europe and Japan, though some ramp-up delays persist in the US. The vertical is expected to accelerate in 2H. The MedTech business is nearing USD50m in annual revenue, while heritage tech clients (three hyperscalers) are in the USD30m+ bracket.

Margin performance and outlook

- EBIT margin stood at 13.4%, up 10bps QoQ. Margin expansion was aided by currency gains but partially offset by headwinds in the Auto sub-segment.
- Management expects sequential expansion in margins, supported by higher growth, improved quality of revenue, favorable segment mix (with large deals in high-margin areas), leverage from AI in delivery, and SG&A optimization.
- Integration of Intelliswift continues to yield cost synergies, resulting in a 40-50bp reduction in SG&A during the quarter. The target range for SG&A is 10.5-11% (currently at 11.5%), to be achieved over the next few quarters.
- D&A expenses were elevated due to Intelliswift-related amortization and capitalization of the new Baroda facility (~INR950m).
- Client-specific volume and price discounts provided in 4QFY25 have now ended, supporting margin recovery from 3Q onward.
