Muted revenue growth with volume in single digit: Asian Paints Q2FY24 revenue was flat YoY but sequentially it saw decline of $7.7 \%$ to Rs $8,478.6 \mathrm{cr}$ because of the weak consumer sentiments, erratic monsoon as well as festive sales shifting to the next quarter (Q3FY24). Thus, its domestic decorative sales (contributes $\sim 82 \%$ of sales) posted flat value growth and single digit volume growth $6 \%$ YoY. Also its international business ( $\sim 9.1 \%$ of sales) growth remained muted due to macro-economic challenges. On the flip side, its Automotive \& industrial coating segments ( $\sim 8.8 \%$ of sales) witnessed decent growth.

Healthy margin improvement continues as compared to YoY: Asian paints profits and margin as compared sequentially remained muted however strong performance was seen as compared to last year. Its gross profit increased by $21.7 \%$ YoY to Rs $3,677.1 \mathrm{lc}$ with margin improvement of 764 bps at $43.4 \%$ Additionally, its EBITDA grew healthy by $39.8 \%$ YoY to Rs $1,716.2$ cr with margins at $20.2 \%$ an improvement of 573bps YoY. Furthermore, its PAT reported was Rs $1,232.4 \mathrm{cr}$, up by $53.3 \%$ YoY with increase in margin by 503bps YoY to $14.5 \%$. Overall strong improvement on profit \& margin as compared to last year was due to moderation in raw material cost by $11.7 \%$ YoY, better sourcing capabilities as well as operating efficiency managed by the company.

Mixed performance of Home Décor: The company's Home décor segment performance was mixed with White Teak and Weatherseal gaining strength and good traction however muted performance from bath \& kitchen segment. White Teak saw healthy growth of $8.5 \%$ YoY to Rs 26.1 lcr and Weatherseal sales doubled to Rs 12.6 cr because of high demand, increase in store network and synergies with the company. Further, these acquisitions are gaining synergies with the company. Besides, its Bath and kitchen segment de-grew by $20 \% / 17.8 \%$ YoY to Rs $81.4 \mathrm{cr} / 96.8 \mathrm{cr}$ due to weak consumer sentiments.

Decent performance of Industrial segment: The company's PPGAP/APPPG business grew by $5.6 \%$ YoY/ $11.4 \%$ YoY to Rs $495.3 \mathrm{cr} / 250.6 \mathrm{cr}$ led by improving demand from Auto OEM as well as strong growth in Protective \& Powder coating segments. Further, both the segment PBT margin improved by $347 \mathrm{bps} / 524 \mathrm{bps}$ YoY to $15.6 \% / 11.3 \%$ in Q2FY24 led by easing of raw material prices, customer and sales mix.

Growth in International market remains impacted: Asian Paints international business witnessed a decline of $3.9 \%$ YoY in INR terms to Rs 775 cr and in constant currency it grew by $1.9 \%$. The decline can be attributed to subdued performance of Asian markets with Bangladesh (macro uncertainties), Egypt (currency devaluation) and Nepal (Liquidity crunch) continuing to remain impacted. The Middle East witnessed double digit growth of $12 \%$ YoY while Sri-Ianka business is seeing recovery.

Outlook & Valuation: We believe industry tailwinds such as festive demand, marriage season and government spending towards infrastructure & housing and demand from real-estate will aid growth for the paints sector and Asian paints being a leader will benefit from it. Additionally, the company's plan of innovating products along with focusing on expanding in the decorative segment by growing its home décor bodes well. Along with it, focus is on growing industrial, Automotive and coating businesses. Further, easing raw material prices as well as efficiency measures taken by the company aids in margin improvement. On a financial front, we estimate its revenue/EBITDA to grow at $18 \% / 27.8 \%$ CAGR over FY23-25E and maintain a Buy rating with a target price of Rs 3,939.

Revenue growth was impacted because of erratic monsoon Margins improved led by moderating raw material prices as well as operationally & sourcing efficiencies

Concall highlights: 1) Sales in Q2FY24 were largely impacted because of the festive season postponed in Q3FY24, but expect 2HFY24 to be better driven by festive and marriage demand and boost in government spending. 2) Going ahead focus remains on growing the decorative and home décor segment as well as strong traction from the auto \& industrial segment bodes well. 3) Management remains cautious on evolving geopolitical issues as it may impact crude \& other input costs and also will keep a watch on macro-economic concerns in international markets. 4) New products contributed $\sim 11 \%$ of the overall revenues. 5) High single digit growth was seen across urban markets while rural is still seeing pickup. 6) It continued with expansion of distribution footprint and added $\sim 2,500$ touchpoints in Q2FY24. 7) Economy range contributed to the mix while luxury products are seeing reasonable traction. 8) Innovation continues in Q2FY24, have introduced Royale designer palette-Shvet (Indian whites \& Ivories), Ador wall coverings, New painted forest wall collection, Nilaya naturals eco system, etc. 9) Home décor contributes $\sim 4 \%$ of decorative revenue. 10) The company announced an interim dividend of Rs $5.15 /$ share.
