Promising rural tailwind to aid growth

Dabur's Q1FY25 print was in-line with our estimates; Consolidated revenue/EBITDA/PAT grew 7.0%/8.3%/8.2% YoY. Domestic business volumes grew 5.2%, yet International business grew 18.4% (CC). Domestic growth was led by HPC (+8.1%), F&B (+4.0%), Health care (+7.0%). Management said its three fold strategy helped to address changing landscape. Despite higher employee/other expenses 8.7%/9.7% and ad spends (7.0% of sales) EBITDA margin settled at 19.6% (+24bp). Dabur aims to deliver high single digit volume growth with ~2% price hikes and aspires to recoup +20% EBITDA margin, though savings from lower input costs would be invested back in ad-spends. We tweak our earnings and retain BUY rating with a revised DCF-based TP of Rs735 (implying avg. 43.4x FY27E EPS).

Namaste facing law suit in US - contribute ~1% to revenues

Management said legal cost of Namaste would come down from Rs1bn to Rs0.8bn in FY25 and case is on the discovery stage (cost is insured which may help to recover 50% amount). Management said there is enough insurance cover available, though Dabur has separated international business and subsidiaries from Namaste.

Valuation and risks

Dabur mitigated the impact of inflationary pressures through disciplined cost control, operational efficiencies and judicious price increases. Dabur expects, with stable monsoon and govt. spending on infra push to lift rural sales momentum helped to grow faster than urban. Further, savings from falling input prices would get reinvested in ad-spend as company intends to support power brands and NPD funnel. Food portfolio (Badshah masala) would continue to growth +20%. We have increased earnings for FY25E/FY26E by 2.1%/3.5% and introduced FY27E. We retain BUY with a revised DCF-based TP of Rs735 (43.4x FY26E EPS). Risks are tepid demand along with irrational competition.
