Technical Snapshot

SELL GOLD DEC @ 123500 SL 124500 TGT 122500-121700. MCX

Observations

Gold trading range for the day is 121070-124590.

Gold dropped as investors digested mixed US labor data and fading expectations for a December Federal Reserve rate cut.

US nonfarm payrolls rose by 119K in September 2025, rebounding from a revised 4K decline in August and beating market forecasts of 50K.

The US unemployment rate increased to 4.4% in September 2025 from 4.3% in August, exceeding market expectations of 4.3%.

Swiss gold exports fell about 11% in October from the previous month, as elevated prices squeezed Chinese demand.

Technical Snapshot

SELL SILVER DEC @ 155000 SL 156000 TGT 153800-153000. MCX

Observations

Silver trading range for the day is 151180-158090.

Silver dropped as markets digested the Fed's October minutes which revealed a divided committee.

The US economy added 119,000 jobs in September, rebounding from a downwardly revised decline of 4,000 in August and surpassing forecasts of 50,000. India's wedding season is boosting physical demand, while concerns over potential US tariffs on silver have added an additional layer.

Many officials still expect cuts at some point but a large group signalled that a December move is not certain.

Gold steadied as investors digested mixed US labor data and fading expectations for a December Federal Reserve rate cut. US nonfarm payrolls rose by 119K in September 2025, rebounding from a revised 4K decline in August and beating market forecasts of 50K. The US unemployment rate increased to 4.4% in September 2025 from 4.3% in August, exceeding market expectations of 4.3% and marking the highest level since October 2021.

Price rise dulls activity in top hubs; India discounts hit 5 – month high - Physical gold demand across major Asian markets was subdued this week as elevated prices curtailed buying activity, with discounts in India reaching their highest level in five months. Indian dealers' discounts were up to $43 per ounce over official domestic prices, up from the last week's discount of up to $14. The India Bullion and Jewellers Association (IBJA) has asked the government to close a policy loophole that allowed import-duty-free platinum-alloy jewellery that contained about 90% gold. In top consumer China, bullion traded anywhere from a discount of $8 to a $4 premium an ounce over the global benchmark spot price. In Singapore, gold traded between a $1.50 and $3.50 premium this week. Gold in Hong Kong was sold at premiums ranging between $0.50 and $2.50. In Japan, bullion was sold at par to a premium of $0.50 per ounce over spot prices.

Gold exports from Switzerland to China soared in August - Gold exports from Switzerland to China jumped 254% in August compared with July to their highest level since May 2024 and supplies to India rose, partly offsetting a slump in deliveries to the United States, Swiss customs data showed. The Swiss data showed that gold exports to China rose in August to 35 metric tons from 9.9 tons in July, while supplies to India, another major bullion consumer along with China, climbed to 15.2 tons from 13.5 tons. China's wholesale gold demand fell last month as investors directed their attention to equities, but imports to the country are supported by expectations that the wholesale demand would rise towards the end of September, Ray Jia, head of China research at the World Gold Council, said in a note. Gold exports from Switzerland, the world's biggest bullion refining and transit hub, to the U.S. fell to 295 kg in August from 51.0 tons in July as some refineries paused shipments to the U.S. amid uncertainty about the country's import tariffs.

China's central bank buys gold in August for 10th month in a row - China's central bank added gold to its reserves in August, extending purchases of bullion into a 10th straight month, official data showed. China's gold reserves stood at 74.02 million fine troy ounces at the end of August, up from 73.96 million at the end of July. They were valued at $253.84 billion, up from $243.99 billion at the end of the previous month, according to data released by the central bank. Demand for physical gold in the world's largest producer, which is also a top consumer of the metal, was weak, due to high prices, with dealers offering discounts over the global benchmark to attract buyers.

The US has slapped tariffs on imports of one-kilo gold bars, in a move that threatens to upend the global bullion market and deal a fresh blow to Switzerland, the world's largest refining hub. The Customs Border Protection agency said one-kilo and 100-ounce gold bars should be classified under a customs code subject to levies, according to a so-called ruling letter dated July 31, which was seen by the Financial Times. Ruling letters are used by the US to clarify its trade policy. One-kilo bars are the most common form traded on Comex, the world's largest gold futures market, and comprise the bulk of Switzerland's bullion exports to the US. Switzerland exported $61.5bn of gold to the US over the 12 months ending in June. That same volume would now be subject to an additional $24bn in tariffs under Switzerland's 39 per cent tariff rate, which went into effect on Thursday.
